DEATH OF A. W. OUTERBRIDGE

Death came to the home of Andrew W. Outerbridge at ten o'clock this morning when he passed through the vale of tears and entered into a just reward, after an illness of about a month, though he had been a sufferer since June 23, 1914, when he was injured in the storm that swept Whitakers and left him a cripple for life. Today he was forty eight years of age.

Born in Pitt County the deceased lived there until 1899 when he came to Scotland Neck and worked for Mr. N. B. Josey until 1902 when he formed a partnership with W. T. Tyler as Tyler and Outerbridge, though during this time he worked for Mr. R. J. Madry, with whom he stayed for 11 years. He later went to Whitakers and formed a partnership with Mr. O. J. Moore, but returned to Scotland Neck in 1916 and again worked for Mr. Madry. In August of last year he became book-keeper for Burroughs-Pittman-Wheeler Company with whom he was employed at the time of his death.

The deceased had been married four times; first to Miss Askew, of Bertie County; second to Miss Lillian Minter, of Norfolk, of which marriage two children survive, Mary Louise and Lillian; third, to Miss Ida Burroughs, of Martin County, from which marriage also two children survive, Minnie Burroughs and Wilson. His fourth wife was Mrs. Mary Bullock, who survives him and one child of this marriage, Annie Avant.

The funeral procession will leave the house at 10:30 tomorrow morning for the Baptist Church, where the service will be conducted by Dr. Charles Anderson and interment will follow in the Baptist Cemetery.
